

Lamp Table Carboy Demijohn Silvered Mirror Glass

£2,700

© Howgego Historic & Modern

REF: 11605

Height: 51 cm (20.1")

Diameter: 137 cm (53.9")

Description

Massive, Late-19th century, French, silvered carboy glass table lamp - Unique and individual conversation table lamp - Massive size, the carboy 54" maximum diameter, 20" high - Beautiful silvering creating a soft mirrored effect amplifying light through reflection.

- This carboy will reflect whatever is around it - Injects character into contemporary, modern or period interiors The word carboy is from the Persian qarabah (قارابه), from Middle Persian Karavah. Arabic also borrowed it as qarraba, meaning "big jug". Demijohn originally referred to any glass vessel with a large body and small neck, enclosed in wickerwork.