

Stephen Charlton Mouse Relaxing Silver Maquette

£13,500

REF: 11618

Height: 40 cm (15.7")

Width: 150 cm (59.1")

Depth: 113 cm (44.5")

Description

Stephen Charlton (B. 1958): Massive, relaxing Mouse. 'Why do we laugh when tickled by others but not when we tickle ourselves?' 'I'm often asked 'why mice?' I suppose it's the wit mixed with a little fantasy that intrigues me, a sense of childhood told through stories that captured my imagination. Here the imagination can play any game it wants if you let it loose. And to be able to bring a 'smile inside' to others is a great achievement for me, to children and adults alike.'

- Injects amusement, humour and fun into the garden or the home, can be supplied with a plinth -
Provenance : Private Collection, Kirkton House, Angus acquired directly from the artist - The artist's handworking has created a wonderful texture - Original sculpture not cast or moulded Measures: Length 150cm., 59 inches, width 113cm., 44½ inches.