Modern, painted, hanging cloth. Lews Bridal Chamber, a 16th century design

Sold

Howgego Historic & Modern 07974 149 912
lucy@howgegohistoricandmodern.com howgegohistoricandmodern.com

REF: 10120

Description

This design was found in the bridal chamber of a house in Lewes. The design was believed to be a wedding gift painted by the Bishop of Chichester's artist. Bridal chambers were often decorated as gifts and the designs were laden with symbolism for example a pink carnation was symbolic of purity and a red rose of the Virgin Mary.

Howgego Historic & Modern 07974 149 912
lucy@howgegohistoricandmodern.com howgegohistoricandmodern.com